

CLEANING ADVICES

We would like to give you advices on how to take care of surfaces and furnishings. Indeed, there are cleaning products that can damage surfaces. Therefore, we urge you always using cleaning products that are gentle.

Flooring

Here is some advice on how to care for your floor.

Stop the dirt at the entrance. Always have a proper doormat inside the front door to stop dirt at the entrance. You may not have the doormat outside the door because of rules for fire prevention.

Vacuum, sweep or dry mop. Most flooring should first select the dry cleaning methods such as vacuuming, sweeping or dry mopping. If you want to wet mop, you should wring out the floor cloth thoroughly. Use clean water with a few drops of mild detergent, washing-up liquid.

Remove stains before they dry out and wipe if necessary with clean water. Use a well-wrung cloth.

NOTE: Do not use steel wool pad as it will scratch the paint / surface.

Walls

Painted walls should be dried with dry cloth. Fingerprints removes by blurring gently with a white eraser.

Ceiling

Far from all ceilings can be washed, so think carefully before you begin. An evenly soiled ceiling can look better than one that is blotchy after washing. Ask your landlord for advice. It might be better with a new layer of paint. All ceilings can be dusted with a duster on a long brush or with nozzle on the vacuum cleaner.

Cabinets and woodwork

Painted and lacquered surfaces washed with water and a mild detergent. Rinse with clean water and wipe dry afterwards. Please avoid ammoniac solutions, scouring powder, aggressive cleaners or abrasive nylon. There are products that can make the surface matt and scratched.

Window

The easiest way to wash windows is to use a window cleaner to scrape off the liquid. (When it is cold, use glass cleaner with ammonia.) Then wipe dr. Alternatively, you can also use the so-called "miracle cloth" for the window, which needed no liquid.

Take the opportunity to wash windows on a cloudy day, then sewn spots better. The sun wipes windows quickly and become happy blotchy.
